If the ship subsidy bill becomes a law, Oregon will be provided with one mail line. When it became apparent that the measure would pass the senate, Senator Fulton offered an amendment specifying that one of the four lines allowed the Pacific should be to the Columbia river and another to Puget Sound. This subvention would be sufficient inducement to establish a new line of steamships between Portland and the Orient, if the present offer maintains.

What has become known as the Fulton amendment to the Dolliver rate-legislation bill in the Senate stands a fair show of being in substance the only amendment offered by the upper branch to the Heppburn rate bill sent from the House. Many compliments are being bestowed upon the Oregon man for his clear analysis of the situation at the time of discussing the amendment offered before the senate had taken the matter up formally.

Late developments before the Senate satisfy observers that Arizona and New Mexico will not be forced into joint statehood, as the general sympathy of the west is with Arizona in its demand for separate existence. Senators openly state that they will not hesitate to oppose the bill sent from the house, which is popularly credited to the administration. Arizona delegations are still in attendance, and say that the people of that territory are willing to wait indefinitely rather than enter the Union now with New Mexico.

Western people who have suffered from Indian depredations will be interested in the "amity" and "hostility" interpretations of Indian life, which the Government makes the crucial question in passing or claims for losses. If the Indians were in a state of "amity" when the loss was sustained, the rule is to pay the loss, but if the Indians were regarded as hostile, the claim is disallowed. Several cases for people who lost during the Bannock raid in 1878 have been pressing claims lately, and to all the Oregon delegation sends the ruling of the court of claims, which declares that the Indians were regarded hostile in the early part of May, and continued so until captured. Some cases were paid for losses suffered at the hands of these same Indians immediately before the Government regarded them hostile—but when in fact the Indians were starting upon the raid. The establishment of an arbitrary period as the dividing line between amity and hostility causes much confusion, but such has been the course of the courts and is rigidly adhered to.

The movement to give stockmen of any community contiguous to a forest reserve greater voice in furnishing the evidence upon which range allotments in the reserve are made, has received considerable impetus since the question was raised by Senator Fulton. In case stockmen feel that they are aggrieved, they want the right to have issue given impartial hearing. Such an issue would involve the questions of the number of stock a forest reserve range will support without injury to the reserve, and the respective interests of stockmen. In apportioning between prior occupants of the same range, stockmen want equity insured. Also the question has arisen regarding the future. Some have deducted that the present customs of the forestry department in apportioning to former occupants of the reserve range, will establish a perpetual right for given stockmen, so that all subsequent stock interests will be excluded from this government privilege. Senator Fulton hopes to have something more definite than the present procedure, laid down for the future.

These wonderful Combs positively cure dandruff, hair falling out, sick and nervous headaches, and when used with Dr. White's Electric Hair Brush are positively guaranteed to make straight hair curly in 25 days time. Thousands of these electric combs have been sold in the various cities of the Union, and the demand is constantly increasing. Our agents are rapidly becoming rich selling these combs. ## Neuralgia And Other Pain.

All pain in any disease is nerve pain, the result of a turbulent condition of the nerves. The stabbing, lacerating, darting, burning, agonizing pain that comes from the prominent nerve branches, or sensory nerves, is neuralgia, and is the "big brother" of all the other pains. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills rarely ever fail to relieve these pains by soothing these larger nerves, and restoring their tranquility. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills leave no bad after-effects, and are a reliable remedy for every kind of pain, such as headache, backache, stomachache, sciatica, rheumatism and neuralgia. They also relieve Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Car-Sickness, and Distress after eating. "For many years I have been a constant sufferer from neuralgia and headache, and have never been able to obtain any relief from various headache powders and capsules, until I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They always cure my headache in five minutes time." FRED H. SWINOLEY, Cashier, St. Paul, Minn.
